DENR to regulate tourism in El Nido, Palawan to prevent another 'Boracay'

By Jonathan L. Mayuga - January 28, 2018

TO prevent the problems besetting Boracay from being repeated in El Nido, Palawan, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) is now taking a proactive approach before environmental problems become unmanageable.

In a press statement, Environment Secretary Roy A. Cimatu said he wants to implement policies to help minimize the negative impact of tourism in El Nido.
